General Commercial Notices

The Cayman Islands Government Department of Public Safety Communications (DPSC) is organised under the Portfolio of Internal and External Affairs.

The Cayman Islands Electronic Monitoring Centre (CIEMC) is responsible for the administration of the National CCTV Programme which includes the installation of public video surveillance cameras strategically placed across each of the Cayman Islands. Operation and monitoring of National CCTV Programme cameras are performed by qualified DPSC staff in accordance with a Cabinet-approved Code of Practice to ensure that human rights are protected and all actions undertaken are lawful, reasonable, and proportionate.

The National CCTV Programme Code of Practice can be found in the Document Library section of the Department's website www.911.gov.ky

The Department of Public Safety Communications utilises certain photographic and electronic devices for the National CCTV Programme by which evidentiary material may be recorded and utilised in public safety, law enforcement and border control situations:
