REVISION) TO MAKE FURTHER PROVISION IN RESPECT OF
PERMANENT RESIDENCE; TO ESTABLISH CRITERIA RELATING TO THE IDENTITY OF PROSPECTIVE WORK PERMIT HOLDERS; TO EXTEND THE POWERS OF THE CHIEF IMMIGRATION OFFICER; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE IMMIGRATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2008

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill makes miscellaneous amendments to the Immigration Law (2007 Revision).

Clause 1 of the Bill provides the short title.

Clause 2 amends the definitions of “Board”, “worker”, and “work permit”, deletes the definition of “Administrator” and inserts a definition of “Director” and “seasonal worker” in section 2.

Clauses 3 and 4 amend sections 4 and 7 respectively, of the principal Law to substitute the “Director of Boards and Work Permits” for the “Administrator” and to effect consequential changes.

Clause 5 amends section 15 of the principal Law to provide for appeals from decisions of the Chief Immigration Officer to be heard by the Immigration Appeals Tribunal.

Clause 6 amends section 22 of the principal Law to extend to the spouse of a Caymanian, the same employment rights that are enjoyed by other permanent residents.

Clause 7 amends section 28 of the principal Law to reinstate a provision dealing with revocation on conviction, which was part of the Immigration Law up to the Revision of 2006 but which was inadvertently omitted thereafter.

Clause 8 amends section 30 of the principal Law to provide-

- (a) that the attainment by an applicant for permanent residence of one hundred points under the points system will entitle him to the grant of permanent residence;
- (b) for the removal of a loophole that enables an unsuccessful applicant for permanent residence to remain in the Islands indefinitely; and
- (c) that a person who became a permanent resident prior to 1st January, 2004 shall, on application to the Board, be granted a Residency and Employment Rights Certificate, unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Clause 9 amends section 31 of the principal Law to remove anomalies that worked to the disadvantage of spouses of Caymanians.

Clause 10 amends section 33 of the principal Law to further empower the Caymanian Status and Permanent Residency Board in relation to the Residency and Employment Rights Certificate of the surviving spouse of a Caymanian.

Clause 11 amends section 35 of the principal Law to effect a cosmetic change.

Clause 12 amends section 36 of the principal Law to establish that both the Residential Certificate for Retirees granted under the Immigration Law 2003 and the Residency Certificate for Persons of Independent Means granted after 21st December, 2006 are alterable by the Chief Immigration Officer.

Clause 13 amends section 38 of the principal Law by adding a new subsection to provide that consequent upon a substantive holder of permanent residence losing his right to permanent residence, anyone who acquired permanent residence by virtue of being a dependant of the substantive holder may, at the discretion of the Board, also lose his right to permanent residence. The amendment also extends the scope of the provisions relating to loss of permanent residence.

Clause 14 repeals section 42 of the principal Law and substitutes an expanded section to provide for the Chief Immigration Officer or his designates to assume a great deal of the powers and functions currently exercised by the Work Permit Board and the Business Staffing Plan Board. The clause enumerates these powers and functions as well as the residuals which may be exercised only by the Boards. The clause would also require a worker to give written consent to being fingerprinted and to have his fingerprints electronically recorded as a condition precedent to the grant or renewal of a work permit.

Clause 15 amends section 44 of the principal Law to make adjustments to the text as a consequence of the new responsibilities that the Chief Immigration Officer is about to assume.

Clause 16 amends section 45 of the principal Law to allow for the processing of late submissions of the Business Staffing Plan on payment of a penalty.

Clauses 17 to 19 amend sections 46 to 48 respectively, of the principal Law for the purpose of making consequential adjustments.

Clause 20 amends section 50 of the principal Law for the purpose of making consequential adjustments.

Clause 21 amends section 52 of the principal Law-

- (a) by specifying the method of calculating the term limit of a person who leaves the Islands and is absent without holding a work permit but returns before the expiration of one year; and
- (b) by removing an encumbrance that stood in the way of the spouse of a work permit holder being able to continue to work in certain circumstances.

Clause 22 amends section 53 of the principal Law to make provision for seasonal workers and entertainers and to embellish the section in relation to temporary work permit holders generally.

Clause 23 amends section 56 of the principal Law to modify the provisions relating to administrative fines.

Clause 24 amends section 64 of the principal Law to further empower senior immigration officers in the administration of the Law, in relation to visas and other travel documents.

Clause 25 validates acts and things done or omitted to be done in pursuance of section 43 of the Immigration Law (2006 Revision), now section 45 of the 2007 Revision.
