IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS

(2009 Revision)

1. These regulations may be cited as the Immigration Regulations (2009 Revision). Citation
- 2 In these regulations- Definitions
- “artist” means a person who cultivates or practises one of the fine arts or the performing arts and includes a musician;
- “exempted position” means a position in a business that is occupied by an exempted employee;
- “fine arts” means those arts that appeal to the intellect or the sense of beauty and include literature, music, painting and sculpture;
- “temporary work permit” means a permit referred to in section 53; and
- “work permit” does not include a temporary work permit.
3. A form, notice, certificate, licence, permit, warrant, book, register or other document is in the prescribed form for the purposes of the Law or of these regulations if it has been issued or approved for the purpose by the Chief Immigration Officer. Prescribed forms, etc.
4. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), an employer or prospective employer shall use his best endeavours to ascertain whether or not there is a Caymanian, or a person legally and ordinarily resident in the Islands, ready, willing and able to undertake the job in question before making an application for the grant or renewal of a work permit in respect of a worker or prospective worker whose gainful occupation in the job is sought to be authorised by the work permit. Applications for work permits
- (2) The Work Permit Board, the Business Staffing Plan Board and the Cayman Brac and Little Cayman Immigration Board may, each in its discretion, waive any provision in this Part in relation to advertising.
- (3) For the purpose of fulfilling the requirement of subregulation (1), the employer or prospective employer shall comply with section 44(2)(b).
- (4) Subject to subregulation (2), an application for the grant or renewal of a work permit shall be accompanied by-
- (a) a copy of each advertisement published in accordance with subregulation (3), with details of the newspaper in which it was published and such advertisement shall contain information relating to the salary range and all other benefits attaching to the advertised post and the date on which it was published;

- (b) a full and accurate description of the job to be filled;
- (c) a full and accurate description of the qualifications the employer or prospective employer considers necessary for carrying out the job and the reasons for requiring those qualifications;
- (d) details of any responses received in respect of the advertisements including the qualifications of those who responded; and
- (e) details of the employer's or prospective employer's reasons for not employing any Caymanian, or person legally resident in the Islands, who responded to the advertisement.

(5) Where a Caymanian has applied for a position, the Board shall, for the purpose of being satisfied of the matters specified in subregulation (1), take into account the following information supplied by the applicant for the grant of the work permit-

- (a) the names of all the applicants for the post;
- (b) the qualifications, working experience and background of all the applicants;
- (c) the reasons given for the choice of the successful applicant and for the refusal to employ the other applicants;
- (d) a copy of the refusal letter and interview report for each unsuccessful Caymanian applicant; and
- (e) a copy of the job description and resumes of the non-Caymanian applicants.

(6) Whoever, in purported compliance with subregulation (3), lodges details that are incomplete, false or misleading is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

(7) The Board has no power to consider an application for a work permit or the renewal of a work permit unless and until the requirements of subregulation (4) have been complied with.

Endorsement on work
permit

5. Each work permit shall have an endorsement or be accompanied by a notice to the work permit holder in the following terms-

“You are hereby informed that, under the existing Laws and regulations, the granting of this work permit in no way confers any entitlement to, or preference in connection with, the granting of any application for the renewal hereof or of any application for the right to be Caymanian. Applications for the renewal of a work permit, applications for the grant of permanent residence and applications for the right to be Caymanian are all considered on their own merits and in the light of circumstances existing at the relevant time.”.

6. (1) The Board may require an applicant for the grant or renewal of a work permit to provide details of any programme that he has that is designed to ensure that Caymanians are provided with the instructions and practical experience necessary to make them fully qualified to carry out the job concerned satisfactorily and as expeditiously as possible. Training and recruitment
- (2) The absence of such a programme or the failure to implement such a programme without reasonable cause constitutes a ground for denying the grant or renewal of a work permit.
- (3) Where the Director of Employment Relations is satisfied that there are insufficient Caymanians, or persons legally and ordinarily resident in the Islands, to meet an expected demand for persons to fill jobs in any profession, trade or industry or in relation to a particular project or enterprise, he may, in consultation with the Board, establish arrangements with authorities outside the Islands for the selection there of persons ready, willing and able to fill those jobs for the purpose of recommending their recruitment to prospective employers within the Islands.
- (4) An application for a work permit involving a person recommended in accordance with subregulation (3) shall be given preference by the Board.
7. The Board shall submit a detailed report to the Governor outlining the total number of work permits granted, extended and revoked during the previous quarter. Periodic reports to the Governor
8. The Chief Immigration Officer shall, at least once every month, obtain from the courts a list of all convictions, divorces, and relative particulars relating thereto, and monthly reports from the Police and the Registrar of Births, in order for the Chief Immigration Officer to ascertain whether or not any person should be allowed to remain in the Islands. Information from the courts, etc.
9. Where a person whose employment in the Islands is authorised under a work permit, the grant of which is conditional upon his remaining in the employment of a particular employer ceases to be employed by that employer- Employer to notify cessation of employment
- (a) the work permit ceases to be valid; and
- (b) the employer shall forthwith give written notice of the termination of the employment to the Chief Immigration Officer, and if he fails to do so is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.
10. The Board may require a prospective worker to- Applicant for work permit to provide evidence, etc.
- (a) provide evidence of the good character of himself and any of his dependants;
- (b) provide proof of identity of himself and of any of his dependants;

- (c) undergo a medical examination or furnish a medical certificate with respect to himself and any of his dependants in a form acceptable to the Board; and
- (d) furnish such other particulars as are, in the opinion of the Board, relevant to the consideration of the application and, in particular, with regard to-
 - (i) his qualifications; and
 - (ii) the availability of suitable living accommodation for himself and his dependants.

Exemptions from requirement for work
permit

11. (1) A person arriving in the Islands for the purpose of engaging in any activities listed in subregulation (2) for a period not exceeding seven days is not required to obtain a work permit, on the condition that only such activities are engaged in and no other activity is carried out that would otherwise require a work permit.

(2) The activities referred to in subregulation (1) are-

- (a) attendance at meetings or trade fairs and making purchases from Cayman Islands businesses;
- (b) attendance at conferences and seminars as an ordinary participant;
- (c) the receiving of training, techniques and work practices employed in the Islands, where that training is confined to observation, familiarisation, and classroom instruction and only if the person is employed by a company or organisation carrying on business outside the Islands;
- (d) being a representative of an overseas educational institution, to promote, or to interview applicants for places at, such institution;
- (e) being a guest speaker at a conference or seminar where that event is a single or occasional event and not part of a commercial venture;
- (f) the organising or supervising of a conference or seminar for up to seven days duration where it is a single or occasional event-
 - (i) involving a specialist subject;
 - (ii) attracting a wide audience; and
 - (iii) open to participants from outside the Islands;
- (g) the participation in sporting events, or trials or auditions in connection with such events;
- (h) the covering of a specific news assignment as a newspaper, magazine, radio or television journalist representing a recognised news organisation;
- (i) working for short periods on behalf of or for a non-profit or cultural organisation based in the Islands;
- (j) being a representative of a foreign manufacturer coming to service or repair products under warranty;

- (k) the giving of professional or expert testimony in court proceedings; and
- (l) working as a non-executive director of a business being carried on in the Islands where the person is not involved in the day to day operations in the Islands but is visiting in his capacity as a director only.

12. A work permit to replace an existing work permit may be granted up to twelve months before the expiry of the existing permit of the person being replaced.

Replacement of work permit

13. In issuing policy directions under section 49(6) in relation to the designation of persons as key employees, the Governor shall have regard to the following criteria-

Criteria for designation as key employee

- (a) there is a global shortage of persons in the profession or vocation;
- (b) notwithstanding the absence of a global shortage, there is a difficulty in attracting or retaining a particular professional category or sub-category in the Islands; or
- (c) there is a desire to attract certain types of business to the Islands.

14. The financial standing that an applicant for a Residential Certificate for Persons of Independent means is required to attain in pursuance of section 34 is as follows-

Required financial standing of applicant for Residential Certificate for Persons of Independent Means

- (a) where he intends to reside in Grand Cayman, he shall satisfy the Chief Immigration Officer-
 - (i) that he has a continuous source of annual income in the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, without the need to engage in employment in the Islands; and
 - (ii) that he has invested the sum of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars in Grand Cayman of which at least two hundred and fifty thousand dollars must be in developed real estate; and
- (b) where he intends to reside in Cayman Brac or Little Cayman, he shall satisfy the Chief Immigration Officer-
 - (i) that he has a continuous source of annual income in the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars without the need to engage in employment in the Islands; and
 - (ii) that he has invested the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars locally of which at least one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars must be in developed residential real estate.

15. Without prejudice to the Board's general ability to impose conditions on a work permit, it may impose conditions on a work permit that require the holder of the work permit-

- (o) is deemed, from information received by the visa issuing officer, to be a person whose presence in the Islands would not be conducive to the public good; or
- (p) has a false document supporting his application, whether or not he is aware of this fact.

(5) A person in possession of a valid visa seeking permission to enter the Islands may be refused permission only where the immigration officer is satisfied that-

- (a) whether or not to the holder's knowledge, false representations were made or material facts were not disclosed, either in writing or orally, for the purpose of obtaining the visa;
- (b) a change of circumstances since it was issued has removed the basis of the holder's claim to land; or
- (c) the refusal is justified-
 - (i) on medical grounds;
 - (ii) on grounds of criminal record or bad character;
 - (iii) on the ground of the existence of a deportation order against him; or
 - (iv) on the ground that his presence in the Islands would not be conducive to the public good.

(6) A person whose application for a visa has been refused may not re-apply until a period of twelve months has elapsed following the date of his last application, unless the visa issuing officer, in his discretion, reduces that period.

21. (1) In this regulation-

"British tourist" means a British citizen or a British Overseas Territories citizen

Discretion of

under section 64

who has arrived in the Islands on a tourist visit;

“Canadian tourist” means a citizen of Canada who has arrived in the Islands on a tourist visit; and

“United States tourist” means a citizen of the United States of America who has arrived in the Islands on a tourist visit.

(2) The requirements of section 64(1) may be waived by an immigration officer in the case of a British, Canadian or United States tourist-

- (a) who produces on arrival in the Islands a return, round trip or through ticket showing to the satisfaction of the immigration officer that, within six months, he is entitled to proceed or return to some place in a country or territory by virtue of his citizenship or residence; and
- (b) who accepts the prescribed form presented to him by the immigration officer on arrival and who complies with the conditions set out on the form.

(3) Notwithstanding section 64(1), a person resident in the United States of America who-

- (a) arrives directly from that country;
- (b) on landing, produces a valid United States Alien Registration Card; and
- (c) produces a return or round trip ticket to that country, may be permitted to enter and remain in the Islands for a period not exceeding thirty days.

(4) Notwithstanding section 64(1), a person resident in Canada who-

- (a) arrives directly from the United States of America or Canada;
- (b) on landing, provides proof that he is a permanent resident or landed immigrant of Canada; and
- (c) produces a return or round trip ticket to the United States of America or Canada, may be permitted to enter and remain in the Islands for a period not exceeding thirty days.

(5) Notwithstanding section 64(1), a person resident in the United Kingdom who-

- (a) arrives directly from the United Kingdom;
- (b) on landing provides proof that he is a permanent resident or landed immigrant of the United Kingdom; and
- (c) produces a return or round trip ticket to the United Kingdom,

may be permitted to enter and remain in the Islands for a period not exceeding thirty days.

(6) A tourist issued with a prescribed form in accordance with paragraph (b) of subregulation (2) shall-

- (a) retain it until his departure from the Islands;
- (b) produce it to a constable or immigration officer if called upon to do so; and
- (c) surrender it to an immigration officer at the time of his departure, and whoever fails so to do is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars.

(7) Proof of citizenship or residence may be established by producing to an immigration officer a photo identification together with a certified copy of one of the following-

- (a) a birth certificate; or
- (b) a naturalisation certificate.

(8) Where there are extenuating circumstances, the Chief Immigration Officer may waive the requirements of subregulation (7).

22 Unless a person arriving in the Islands is exempted from the requirements of the Law, he may be refused permission to land by an immigration officer if-

Power of immigration officer to refuse entry

- (a) he is without a passport, visa or other appropriate travel documents;
- (b) upon his arrival, he provides false or misleading information to an immigration officer;
- (c) he fails to provide information required by an immigration officer for the purpose of deciding whether entry should be allowed and on what terms;
- (d) he has in the past-
 - (i) obtained a benefit by way of grant from the immigration authorities by fraud or deception; or
 - (ii) failed to observe a condition attaching to an immigration grant;
- (e) he is a prohibited immigrant;
- (f) he fails to satisfy the immigration officer that he will be admitted to another country after his stay in the Islands;
- (g) his sponsor is unwilling to give, if requested to do so, an undertaking to be responsible for his maintenance and accommodation during the period of any leave granted;
- (h) the immigration officer has information to the effect that-

- (i) it will be conducive to the public good to refuse him leave to enter; or
- (ii) he does not intend to leave the Islands at the end of the period of his visit;
- (i) he intends, unlawfully, to engage in gainful occupation in the Islands;
- (j) he has in his possession a forged, altered or irregular passport or other travel document;
- (k) he intends, without having obtained the necessary student visa, to engage in formal studies in the Islands; or
- (l) he has insufficient funds-
 - (i) to adequately maintain himself and his dependants without recourse to taking up employment; or
 - (ii) to meet the cost of the return or onward journey.

Arrivals and departures
by air during abnormal hours

23. (1) Where an aircraft is expected to arrive in or depart from the Islands before 7.00 a.m. or after 9.30 p.m., (hereinafter called “abnormal hours”), it shall be the responsibility of the airline concerned to so notify, as soon as possible, a senior immigration officer, supplying him with details of the flight plan including the expected time of arrival or departure, the number of passengers on board and any other information requested, and the senior immigration officer shall lodge such communication in the immigration shift manager’s report.

(2) A fee to offset the overtime salaries payable to immigration officers shall be levied on the airline referred to in subregulation (1) at the following half-hourly rates, save that the minimum charge shall be for a period of one hour-

Arrivals

| No. of passengers | Fee per thirty minutes |
|---|------------------------|
| (a) up to sixty | $159 |
| (b) more than sixty but fewer than eighty | $198 |
| (c) eighty or more | $237 |

Departures

| No. of passengers | Fee per thirty minutes |
|---|------------------------|
| (a) up to sixty | $82 |
| (b) more than sixty but fewer than eighty | $130 |
| (c) eighty or more | $159. |

(3) For the purposes of calculating the cost to the airline for the immigration services rendered under this regulation, account shall be taken of the fact that a team of immigration officers shall be on duty to service the flights-

- (a) in the case of arrivals, thirty minutes before the indicated time of arrival until ten minutes after it is cleared; and
- (b) in the case of departures, one hundred and twenty minutes before the indicated time of departure until the flight leaves.

(4) Where there are multiple arrivals or departures during abnormal hours, the cost of the overtime immigration services to each airline shall be pro-rated based on the number of passengers arriving or departing on each flight.

24. (1) Subject to subregulation (2) a non-refundable repatriation fee of two hundred dollars is payable for the purposes of section 68(3) for the grant of a work permit.

Requirement for payment of repatriation fee

(2) Ministers of Religion and school teachers are exempt from the requirement to pay a repatriation fee.

25. The Chief Immigration Officer shall, if requested to do so by a Caymanian, place the following endorsement on the passport or travel document of that person-

Endorsement on passports

“The holder is a Caymanian and may enter and remain in the Cayman Islands at will.

Chief Immigration Officer”.

26. (1) A person in the category mentioned in subregulation (2) is exempt from the requirements of section 71(1), when disembarking in or leaving the Islands, to complete and hand to an immigration officer immediately on arrival or departure a disembarkation card or embarkation card in the prescribed form.

Exemption from the requirement to complete embarkation and disembarkation cards

(2) The category comprises any person who, when disembarking in or leaving the Islands, produces for the inspection of an immigration officer a Cayman Islands passport which is valid for travel by that person.

27. The Governor may, from time to time, waive or reduce any or all of the following fees in the First Schedule in relation to any person or group of persons.

9. General

(Maximum 20)

The Board may take into consideration the desirability of granting permanent residence to applicants with different backgrounds and from different geographical areas in order to maintain a suitable balance in the social and economic life of the country.

Explanation

In exercising this discretion the Board may award points to applicants from countries whose nationals hold less than twenty percent of the total number of work permits in effect at that time based on Department of Immigration statistical information as follow:

Applicant is from a country whose nationals hold the following percentages of the work force:

- | | |
| (a) exceeding 16% but not exceeding 20% | 5 points |
