DECISION OF THE GRAND COURT TO ACQUIT WHERE A NO CASE
SUBMISSION IS UPHOLD OR WHERE THE CASE IS WITHDRAWN
FROM THE JURY; THE INSTITUTION OF CRIMINAL APPEALS BY THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS RATHER THAN BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE COURT OF APPEAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2010

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Court of Appeal Law (2006 Revision) in order to provide for an appeal from a decision of the Grand Court to acquit where a no case submission is upheld or where the case is withdrawn from the jury.

Clause 1 provides the short title.

Clause 2 provides for the amendment of section 28 of the principal Law to make it clear that the Director of Public Prosecutions or a complainant may appeal against a judgment or verdict to acquit, that is as a result of a decision by the trial judge to uphold a no case submission or withdraw the case from the jury, on grounds that the decision of the trial judge was erroneous on a point of law.

Clause 3 amends the principal Law by providing for all references to the office of the Attorney General to be substituted by references to the office of the Director of Public Prosecutions in order to bring the principal Law in line with section 57 of the Constitution which provides for the Director of Public Prosecutions to institute and undertake criminal proceedings.

Clause 4 contains savings and transitional provisions.
