THE DEVELOPMENT AND PLANNING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2010

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill amends the Development and Planning Law (2008 Revision).

Clause 1 of the Bill provides the short title of the legislation.

Clause 2 amends section 2 of the principal Law to insert new definitions.

Clause 3 inserts into the principal Law a new section 3A for the purpose of formally establishing the Department of Planning.

Clause 4 of the Bill repeals and replaces section 4 of the principal Law to provide that the Director of Planning and other appointed officers shall be employed in the Department of Planning and shall be responsible for the administration of the Central Planning Authority and the Development Control Board.

Clause 5 amends section 6 of the principal Law to make provision for planned area developments to be treated as major developments for the purposes of the Law.

Clause 6 inserts into the principal Law a new section 8A to make provision for immunity of the Authority, the Board, the Department of Planning, the Director or an employee of the Department against liability for damages for anything done in good faith in the exercise of their respective duties.

Clause 7 of the Bill amends section 13 of the principal Law to provide that works affecting the interior of a building require planning permission if those works constitute a material change in the use of the building.

Clause 8 amends section 15 of the principal Law to extend the period for which approval of planning permission may be granted and to make further provision in respect of the service of a notice of an application for planning permission.

Clause 10 inserts into the principal Law a new Part IIIA containing provisions requiring the improvement of land and buildings adversely affecting the amenity of a neighbourhood . Clause 9 is a consequential amendment.

Clause 11 of the Bill repeals and replaces Part VI of the principal Law to establish a stable and adequate source of funding for affordable housing through the Infrastructure Fund.

Clause 12 repeals section 42(3) of the principal Law to enable regulations to be made without the prior approval of the Legislative Assembly.

Clauses 13 and 14 amend sections 48 and 49 of the principal Law to make further provision in respect of appeals against decisions of the Authority and the Board.

Clause 15 of the Bill repeals and replaces section 53 of the principal Law to provide that the legislation binds the Crown. The requirements of the legislation may be waived where, in the opinion of the Governor in Cabinet, the public interest so requires.

Clause 16 contains savings and transitional provisions.

“ (1a) For the purposes of this Law -

- (a) carrying out development without the grant of permission required in that behalf under Part III; or
- (b) failing to comply with any condition or limitation subject to which such permission has been granted, constitutes a breach of planning control.”.

Insertion of section 3A - continuation of Planning
Department

3. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 3 the following section -

“Continuation of Planning
Department

3A. There shall continue to be established a department of Government called the Department of Planning which shall be maintained by such monies as shall be paid out of the general revenue of the Islands.”.

Repeal and substitution
of section 4 -
appointment of staff

4. The principal Law is amended by repealing section 4 and substituting the following section -

“Appointment of staff

4A. (1) The Governor shall appoint a Director of Planning and such other officers as appear necessary for the proper exercise of the functions of the Authority; and the Director and officers shall be employed in the Department of Planning and shall be responsible for the administration of the Authority and the Board, including preparing their agendas and minutes, and communicating and implementing their decisions.

(2) It is the duty of the Director to attend all meetings of the Authority and to make to the Authority and the Board such recommendations as may appear to him to be necessary for the implementation of this Law.”.

5. The principal Law is amended in section 6(2) by inserting after paragraph (d) the following paragraph -
- Amendment of section 6
- applications to carry out major developments

“(da)planned area developments;”.

“Immunity

8A. The Authority, the Board, the Department of Planning, the Director or an employee of the Department of Planning shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of their respective duties or functions under this Law unless it is shown that the act or omission was in bad faith.”.

7. The principal Law is amended in section 13 as follows -
- Amendment of section 13 - provisions for development

- (a) in subsection (1) by inserting after the words “this Law” the words “or any regulations made under this Law”;
- (b) by repealing subsection (2);
- (c) in subsection (3), in the definition of “development” by repealing paragraph (a) and substituting the following paragraphs -
 - “(a) the carrying out of works for the maintenance, improvement or other alteration of any detached house if the works -
 - (i) affect only the interior of the house or do not materially affect the external appearance of the house; and
 - (ii) do not constitute or contribute to a material change in the use of the house;
 - (aa) the carrying out of works for the maintenance, improvement or other alteration of any building (other than a detached house) if the works -
 - (i) affect only the interior of the building or do not materially affect the external appearance of the building;
 - (ii) do not constitute or contribute to a material change in the use of the building; and
 - (iii) do not contravene any other Law, regulation or code;”;
- (d) in subsection (6) by deleting the word “Permission” and substituting the words “Subject to any regulations made under this Law with regard to planned area developments, permission”; and

- (e) by repealing subsection (7) and substituting the following subsection -

“(7) Subject to subsection (6) and to any regulations made under this Law with regard to planned area developments, permission to develop land, the primary purpose of which is for residential use, for any other purpose than such use shall not be granted unless the Authority is satisfied that -

- (a) the applicant has published adequate notice of his application for such permission in four consecutive issues of a public newspaper circulating in the Islands; and
- (b) consent to the granting of such approval has been given by a majority of all owners of full legal capacity who -
 - (i) for the time being reside within a radius of one thousand feet of the boundaries of the land to which the application relates; or
 - (ii) reside elsewhere and own any building or land (including a strata lot) within a radius of one thousand feet of the boundaries of the land to which the application relates;

but where a development involves any operation which by itself would not conform to the primary use of residential land, that operation shall be deemed to not change the primary use of that land if the development to which such operation relates conforms to such primary use.”.

Amendment of section 15 - application for planning permission

8. The principal Law is amended in section 15 as follows -

- (a) in subsection (1) by inserting after the word “land” the words “or permission for a planned area development”; and
- (b) by repealing subsections (3) and (4) and substituting the following subsections -

“(3) Subject to any specific provision made therein by the Authority, permission granted by the Authority remains effective for five years from the date of its promulgation but where permission is granted for a planned area development or where any part of the approved development is commenced within such time as provided or imposed thereunder, such approval shall vest in perpetuity and enure for the benefit of the land in accordance with section 16(4), unless revoked or modified in accordance with section 17.

(4) Notice of an application for planning permission having been made to the Authority (other than an application for permission having relation to a detached house, semi-detached house, duplex or any temporary development) shall be served in accordance with any regulations made under this Law, and the Authority shall not consider any application in the absence of evidence of service or publication, as the case may be, of such notice and unless twenty-one days have elapsed since the service or publication, as the case may be, of the last of such required notice.”.

9. The principal Law is amended by repealing section 27.

Repeal of section 27 - maintenance of waste land, etc.

10. The principal Law is amended by inserting after Part III the following Part -

Insertion of Part IIIA- Land Adversely Affecting Amenity of Neighbourhood

“PART IIIA - Land Adversely Affecting Amenity of Neighbourhood

Power to require proper maintenance of land

29A.(1) If it appears to the Authority that the amenity of an area is adversely affected or seriously injured by reason of the ruinous, dilapidated or other condition of any building, or by the condition of land due to the deposit of refuse, spoil or derelict vehicles or the occupation of land or a road for purposes of the repair of vehicles, it may serve a notice under this section on -

- (a) the owner or occupier of the land or building; or
- (b) the person responsible for causing the condition of the land or building.

(2) The notice shall require such steps for remedying the condition of the land or building as may be specified in the notice to be taken within such period as may be so specified.

(3) Subject to the following provisions of this Part, the notice shall take effect at the end of such period as may be specified in the notice.

Penalty for non-compliance with notice under section 29A

29B.(1) The provisions of this section shall have effect where a notice has been served under section 29A.

(2) If any owner or occupier of the land or building on whom the notice was served fails to take steps required by the notice within the period specified in it for compliance with it, he is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of -

- (a) five thousand dollars per day from the date that the notice takes effect in accordance with section 29A(3) in relation to land or a building in a zone other than a Hotel/Tourism zone as defined in the Development and Planning Regulations (2006 Revision); or
- (b) twenty-five thousand dollars per day from the date that the notice takes effect in accordance with section 29A(3) in relation to land or a building in a Hotel/Tourism zone as so defined, and, in default of the payment of the fine, to imprisonment for a term of six months.

(3) Where proceedings have been brought under subsection (2) against a person as the owner of the land or building and he has, at some time before the end of the compliance period, ceased to be the owner of the land or building, if he -

- (a) duly lays information to that effect; and
- (b) gives the prosecution not less than three clear days' notice of his intention,

he shall be entitled to have the person who then became the owner of the land or building brought before the court in the proceedings.

(4) Where proceedings have been brought under subsection (2) against a person as the occupier of the land or building and he has, at some time before the end of the compliance period, ceased to be the occupier of the land or building, if he -

- (a) duly lays information to that effect; and
- (b) gives the prosecution not less than three clear days' notice of his intention,

he shall be entitled to have brought before the court in the proceedings the person who then became the occupier of the land or building or, if nobody then became the occupier, the person who is the owner at the date of the notice.

(5) Where in such proceedings -

- (a) it has been proved that any steps required by the notice under section 29A have not been taken within the compliance period; and
- (b) the original defendant proves that the failure to take those steps was attributable, in whole or in part, to the default of a person specified in the notice under subsection (3) or (4), then -

- (i) that person may be convicted of the offence; and
- (ii) if the original defendant also proves that he took all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the notice, he shall be acquitted of the offence.

(6) If, after a person has been convicted under the previous provisions of this section, he does not as soon as practicable do everything in his power to secure compliance with the notice, he is guilty of a further offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of -

- (a) one hundred dollars for each day following his first conviction on which any of the requirements of the notice remain unfulfilled, in relation to land or a building in a zone other than a Hotel/Tourism zone or a Commercial zone as defined in the Development and Planning Regulations (2006 Revision); or
- (b) two thousand for each day following his first conviction on which any of the requirements of the notice remain unfulfilled in relation to land or a building in a Hotel/Tourism zone or a Commercial zone as so defined, and, in default of the payment of the fine, to imprisonment for a term of three months.

(7) Any reference in this section to the compliance period, in relation to a notice, is a reference to the period specified in the notice for compliance with it.

Appeal to summary court against notice
under section
29A

29C. (1) A person on whom a notice under section 29A is served, or any other person having an interest in the land to which the notice relates, may, at any time within the period specified in the notice as the period at the end of which it is to take effect, appeal against the notice on any of the following grounds -

- (a) that the condition of the land or building to which the notice relates does not adversely affect the amenity of the area;
- (b) that the condition of the land or building to which the notice relates is attributable to, and is such as results in the ordinary course of events from, the carrying on of operations or a use of land which is not in contravention of Part III;
- (c) that the requirements of the notice exceed what is necessary for preventing the condition of the land or building from adversely affecting the amenity of the area; and
- (d) that the period specified in the notice as the period within which any steps required by the notice are to be taken falls short of what should reasonably be allowed.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be made to a court of summary jurisdiction.

(3) Where such an appeal is brought, the notice to which it relates shall be suspended and shall not take effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal.

(4) On such an appeal, the court may correct any informality, defect or error in the notice if satisfied that the informality, defect or error is not material.

(5) On the determination of such an appeal the court shall give directions for giving effect to its determination, including, where appropriate, directions for quashing the notice or for varying the terms of the notice in favour of the appellant.

(6) Where the notice is varied or the appeal dismissed or withdrawn by the appellant, the notice, unless the court directs otherwise, shall take effect on the date of determination of the appeal.

(7) Where any person has appealed to a court under this section against a notice, neither that person nor any other shall be entitled, in any other proceedings instituted after the making of the appeal, to claim that the notice was not duly served on the person who appealed.

Appeal to Grand Court

29D. Where an appeal has been brought under section 29C, an appeal against the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction on that appeal may be brought to the Grand Court by the appellant or by the Authority.

Execution and cost of works required by notice under section 29A

29E. (1) If, within the period specified in a notice under section 29A in accordance with subsection (2) of that section, any steps required by the notice to be taken have not been taken, the Authority may -

- (a) enter the land or building and take those steps; and
- (b) recover from the person who is then the owner of the land or building any expenses reasonably incurred by the Authority in doing so.

(2) Where a notice has been served under section 29A -

- (a) any expenses incurred by the owner or occupier of any land or building for the purpose of complying with the notice; and
- (b) any sums paid by the owner of any land or building under subsection (1) in respect of expenses incurred by the Authority in taking steps required by such a notice, shall be deemed to be incurred or paid for the use and at the request of the person who caused or permitted the land or building to come to be in the condition in which it was when the notice was served.

(3) Where by virtue of this section any expenses are recoverable by the Authority, those expenses shall be recoverable as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction, or there may be the imposition of a caution or restriction on the property in accordance with Part VIII of the Registered Land Law (2004 Revision).”.

Repeal and substitution
of Part VI -
Infrastructure Fund

11. The principal Law is amended by repealing Part VI and substituting the following Part -

“PART VI Infrastructure Fund

Amendment of section
42 - regulations

12. The principal Law is amended in regulation 42 by repealing subsection (3).

Amendment of section
48 - appeals against decisions of Authority

13. The principal Law is amended in regulation 48 by repealing subsections (1) and (2) and substituting the following subsections -

“ (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Authority in respect of an application for planning permission, may, within fourteen days of notification or publication of that decision, whichever occurs the sooner, or within such longer period as the Appeals Tribunal may in any particular case allow for good cause, appeal against that decision to the Appeals Tribunal on the ground that it is -

- (a) erroneous in law;
- (b) unreasonable;
- (c) contrary to the principles of natural justice; or
- (d) at variance with any development plan having effect in relation thereto,

but not otherwise; and such appeal shall be heard by the Tribunal within six months of such appeal being lodged and such appeal shall be heard and determined based on the record of the hearing to which it relates in accordance with any rules made hereunder.

(2) After hearing an appeal hereunder, the Tribunal may confirm, reverse or modify any decision of the Authority or may in appropriate circumstances remit the matter to the Authority with or without directions as to rehearing the matter, and may make such order (including any order for costs) as it thinks just and where the Tribunal finds that an appeal has been made which is frivolous and vexatious, the Tribunal may award costs on an indemnity basis against the appellant.”.

14. The principal Law is amended in regulation 49 by repealing subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection -

Amendment of section 49 - appeals against decisions of Board

“ (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Board in respect of an application for planning permission, may, within fourteen days of notification or publication of that decision whichever occurs the sooner, or within such longer period as the Appeals Tribunal may in any particular case allow for good cause, appeal against that decision to the Appeals Tribunal on the ground that it is -

- (a) erroneous in law;
- (b) unreasonable;
- (c) contrary to the principles of natural justice; or
- (d) at variance with any development plan having effect in relation thereto,

but not otherwise; and such appeal shall be heard by the Tribunal within six months of such appeal being lodged and such appeal shall be heard and determined based on the record of the hearing to which it relates in accordance with any rules made hereunder.”.

15. Section 53 of the principal Law is repealed and replaced by the following section -

Repeal and substitution of section 53 - application

“Application 53. This Law binds the Crown but, where in the opinion of the Governor the public interest so requires, the Governor may waive any of the requirements of this Law.”.

16. (1) Every application for permission to develop land made under the former Law and wholly or partly dealt with by the Authority or the Board when

Savings and transitional provisions

the new Law comes into force, is to be continued and dealt with in all respects as if the new Law had not come into force.

(2) Permission to develop land, granted as a result of an application determined under subsection (1), is to be granted on the same terms and conditions that would have applied if the new Law had not come into force.

(3) Every application for permission to develop land made under the former Law and not wholly or partly dealt with by the Authority or the Board when the new Law comes into force, is to be taken to be an application made under the new Law and the provisions of the new Law are to apply accordingly.

(4) In the case of an appeal against –

- (a) any decision of the Authority or the Board; or
- (b) any decision or order of the Tribunal or the Appeals Tribunal, that has been commenced but not finally determined before the new Law comes into force, the appeal is to continue to be dealt with as if the new Law had not come into force; and when the appeal is finally determined, the former Law is to apply subject to any necessary modifications as if the appeal had been finally determined before the new Law came into force.

(5) Any permission to develop land, granted under the former Law and in force immediately before the date of commencement of this Law –

- (a) shall have effect from that date, as if granted under the new Law; and
- (b) in the case of permission granted for a limited period only, shall remain in force, subject to the provisions of the new Law, for so much of that period as falls after that date.

(6) In this section –

“Appeals Tribunal”, “Authority”, “Board” and “Tribunal” have the respective meanings assigned to those expressions by section 2(1) of the principal Law;

“former Law” means the principal Law in force immediately before the date of commencement of this Law;

“new Law” means the principal Law as amended by this Law; and
