Withdrawal of amount from pension
account as a deposit

52B. (1) Notwithstanding sections 55 and 56, but subject to the remaining provisions of this section, a person who is a Caymanian and non-current home owner may withdraw from his account in a pension plan an amount not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars as a deposit.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person who is a non-current home owner but who owns land in the Islands shall not be entitled to withdraw an amount from his account in a pension plan as a deposit to purchase other land in the Islands.

(3) A person who wishes to withdraw an amount as a deposit pursuant to subsection (1) shall, subject to subsection (4), make an application to the relevant administrator in the form prescribed in the Schedule.

Schedule

(4) An application under subsection (3) shall be accompanied by -

- (a) evidence that the person is a Caymanian;
- (b) a declaration in the form prescribed in Part B of the Schedule that the person is a non-current home owner; and
- (c) a copy of a letter issued by a financial institution addressed to the person making the application (whether or not solely to that person), showing approval in principle of a loan to purchase an existing dwelling unit, construct a new dwelling unit or purchase residential land in the Islands and the deposit required.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, two or more persons who are Caymanians and non-current home owners approved in principle by a financial institution may, in accordance with this section, withdraw the amount of the deposit required from their respective accounts in a pension plan up to the maximum of thirty-five thousand dollars each towards a single loan from a financial institution for the purchase of an existing dwelling unit, construction of a new dwelling unit or purchase of residential land in the Islands.

(6) Where an application is made under subsection (3), the administrator -

- (a) shall, within forty-five days of the application being submitted, issue the deposit in the form of a cheque payable to the relevant financial institution and deliver it to the applicant if satisfied that the applicant is entitled under subsection (1) to withdraw the amount applied for; or
- (b) may, if not satisfied that all the requirements under subsection (4) have been correctly provided by the applicant, refuse the application and shall, within seven days of the application being submitted, give reasons for the refusal to the applicant, by letter in writing.

(7) An administrator who contravenes subsection (6) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both; and if the offence is a continuing one to a fine of one thousand dollars for every day or part of a day during which the offence has continued.

(8) An administrator shall provide to the Superintendent monthly -

- (a) a list of all persons who have withdrawn amounts as deposits from their respective accounts in a pension plan under this section, stating the amount of each deposit;
- (b) a list of all persons who applied for amounts as deposits under this section;
- (c) a copy of each letter to persons stating the reason for refusal under subsection (6)(b); and
- (d) in the form approved by the Superintendent, a report with respect to each person who has withdrawn an amount as a deposit from his account in a pension plan under this section.

(9) An administrator who contravenes subsection (8) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

(10) Where before attaining the normal retirement age, a person sells the dwelling unit purchased or constructed or the residential land purchased through the use of a deposit under this section, the person shall upon completion of the sale return the original amount of deposit or ten per cent of the fair market value of the dwelling unit or residential land, whichever is greater, back to his pension plan account.

(11) A person who contravenes subsection (10) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

Withdrawal of amount from pension account to pay off an existing mortgage

52C. (1) Notwithstanding sections 55 and 56 but subject to the remaining provisions of this section, a person who is a Caymanian may withdraw from his account in a pension plan an amount not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars required to pay off an existing mortgage on a dwelling unit in the Islands so that the dwelling unit is free from any encumbrance.

Schedule

(2) A person who wishes to withdraw an amount required to pay off an existing mortgage pursuant to subsection (1) shall, subject to subsection (3), make an application to the relevant administrator in the form prescribed in the Schedule.

(3) An application under subsection (2) shall be accompanied by -

- (a) evidence that the person is a Caymanian;
- (b) evidence that the applicant has legal title to the dwelling unit; and
- (c) a copy of a letter issued by the financial institution holding the mortgage, addressed to the person making the application (whether or not solely to that person), showing approval in principle for paying off the existing mortgage and the amount to be paid off.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, two or more persons who are Caymanians approved in principle by a financial institution may, in accordance with this section, withdraw the amount required from their respective accounts in a pension plan up to the maximum of thirty-five thousand dollars each towards paying off an existing mortgage.

(5) Where an application is made under subsection (2), the administrator -

- (a) shall, within forty-five days of the application being submitted, issue the amount required to pay off the existing mortgage in the form of a cheque payable to the relevant financial institution and deliver it to the applicant if satisfied that the applicant is entitled under subsection (1) to withdraw the amount applied for; or
- (b) may, if not satisfied that all the requirements under subsection (3) have been correctly provided by the applicant, refuse the application and shall, within seven days of the application being submitted, give reasons for the refusal to the applicant, by letter in writing.

(6) An administrator who contravenes subsection (5) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both; and if the offence is a continuing one to a fine of one thousand dollars for every day or part of a day during which the offence has continued.

(7) An administrator shall provide to the Superintendent monthly -

- (a) a list of all persons who have withdrawn amounts from their respective accounts in

- a pension plan under this section, stating each amount withdrawn;
- (b) a list of all persons who applied for a withdrawal under this section;
- (c) a copy of each letter to persons stating the reason for refusal under subsection (5)(b); and
- (d) in the form approved by the Superintendent, a report with respect to each person who has withdrawn an amount from his account in a pension plan under this section.

(8) An administrator who contravenes subsection (7) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

(9) Where, before attaining the normal retirement age, a person sells the dwelling unit acquired through the use of an amount withdrawn pursuant to this section, the person shall upon completion of the sale return the amount withdrawn or ten per cent of the fair market value of the dwelling unit, whichever is greater, back to his pension plan account.

(10) A person who contravenes subsection (9) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

(11) In this section “encumbrance” has the meaning assigned to that expression under section 2 of the Registration (Land) Law (1996 Revision).

(1996 Revision)
