Memorandum of OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to amend the Limited Liability Companies Law (2018 Revision) ("the principal Law") to make certain information related to limited liability companies accessible and to increase the penalty for failure to comply with beneficial ownership requirements.

Clause 1 contains the short title and commencement provisions.

Clause 2 introduces a new section 4A which would require the Registrar of Limited Liability Companies, upon receipt of a request in writing, to provide information to the Anti-Corruption Commission, the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority, the Financial Crimes Unit of the Royal Cayman Islands Police Service, the Financial Reporting Authority, the Tax Information Authority and any competent authority as defined under section 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Law (2019 Revision), which is assigned responsibility for monitoring compliance with money laundering regulations under section 4(9) of the Proceeds of Crime Law (2019 Revision).

Clause 3 introduces a new section 34A which would require the Registrar of Limited Liability Companies to make a list of the names of the managers of a limited liability company available for inspection by any person.

Clause 4 amends amends section 100 of the principal Law to provide for a fine of twentyfive thousand dollars in the case of a first offence where a limited liability company knowingly and wilfully contravenes section 73(1), 74(1), 78, 79(1) or (1A) or 81(2) of the principal Law or knowingly and willfully fails to issue a notice as required by section 75, 81 or 82(3) of the principal Law. Clause 4 also provides for a fine of one hundred thousand dollars where a limited liability company commits a second offence and further seeks to empower the court to strike the limited liability company off the register where the limited liability company has been convicted of a third offence.

Clause 5 amends section 101 of the principal Law to provide for a fine of twenty-five thousand dollars for a person who commits a first offence of failing to comply with a notice issued under section 75 or 81 of the principal Law and in the case of a second or subsequent offence, a fine of fifty thousand dollars.

Clause 6 amends section 102 of the principal Law to provide for a fine of twenty-five thousand dollars for a person who commits a first offence of failing to comply with a duty under section 76 or 83 of the principal Law and in the case of a second offence, a fine of fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or both.
