The public is also hereby given notice of the following:

1. Unless one or more of the following transactions are effected on a dormant account listed above on or before 31st December next following, the monies in the dormant account will be transferred to the Government without further notice –
 - (a) increase or decrease the amount held by the account provider¹;
 - (b) present the passbook or other record for the crediting of interest or dividends in respect of any sum payable with respect to any general deposit, demand deposit, savings deposit or deposit for a fixed period, made in the Islands with the account provider, or any sum payable on cheques certified in the Islands by the account provider;

(c) correspond in writing with the account provider concerning the monies;

(d) otherwise indicated an interest in the monies as evidenced by a memorandum concerning the monies written by the account provider.

2. Subject to the Dormant Accounts Law, 2010 (as amended) on the transfer of the monies in the dormant account to the Government, the dormant account holder will no longer have any right against the account provider to repayment of the monies transferred, but the dormant account holder will have against the Government such right to repayment of the monies transferred that the dormant account holder would have had against the account provider.
3. Any interested person should contact the account provider mentioned above to establish if that person is a dormant account holder.

¹Interest paid by an account provider on monies held by the account provider shall not be regarded as a transaction which increases the amount held by the account provider pursuant to section 4(4) of the Dormant Accounts Law, 2010 (as amended).
